Interesting Lecture.

Mrs. Daniel Shephardson, lecturer on oriental customs, spoke in the Fairview Baptist church Sunday night to a large audience. Her subject was "The Jew of Jericho," her costume being patterned after the women of Bethlehem and the setting on the platform being a Jewish Levant. Mrs. Shephardson dwelt upon the customs of 2,000 years ago as compared with those today, there being but slight change.

Tonight the subject will be "The Way in Old Japan." A large Japanese tea house will be placed on the platform, a small boy and a young lady will be attired in Japanese costume and at the close of the lecture tea will be served to the gentlemen and boys according to "The Way in Old Japan."

Tuesday night the subject on the program for the week will be "China and the Chinese." Wednesday evening "The Home of the Hider; Thursday evening, "On Horseback through Palestine;" and Friday evening, "Life in the Harms of Jerusalem," for women exclusively.

MAYOR THOMPSON'S RAIDED BY SLEUTHS

In the Warfare Waged against Slot Machines in the City of Chicago.

CINCO CIGARS

Now Five Cents Straight.

CHICAGO, Oct. 2.—Detectives operating under the direction of State's Attorney Hoyne, who is investigating slot machines in Chicago, Monday raided the Sportsmen's Club of America, of which Mayor William H. Thompson formerly was president, seized all records and summoned the secretary and other attaches to appear before the grand jury.

Assistant State's Attorney Burger issued a statement that the raid followed investigation which indicated that officials of the club, including Chief of Police Charles C. Healey, were connected with the installation of slot machines in Chicago.

The statement charged specifically that James A. Hugh, president of the club and reputed financial banker of Mayor Thompson in the campaign leading to his election, and William H. Luthardt, secretary to Chief Healey, were directly connected with the installation of the slot machines.

Mr. Burger's statement asserted that keepers of saloons and vicious resorts and handbook makers were solicited to become members of the club and that life memberships were sold for $100. The money collected, said Mr. Burger, was used for political purposes.

Chief of Police Healey denied Burger's charges and said he welcomed an investigation of the club's affairs.

Owing to the increased cost of production, the manufacturers of CINCO CIGARS, CITO EISENLOHR & BROS., INCORPORATED, have advanced their selling price to the dealers, and, in future, this cigar will be sold to the consumer absolutely at five cents straight, instead of six for a quarter, as heretofore.

The CINCO Cigar has attained a national reputation, and, through the maintenance of a high standard of quality, has become the largest seller in the world, and the manufacturers deemed it advisable to advance the price rather than sacrifice its long-established high quality.—Advertisement.

MINES HAMPERED BY DRUNKENNESS

Great Quantities of Liquor Are Brought In and Men Are Incapacitated.

Coal operators of the Clarksburg district are complaining that so little attention is being paid to the prohibition laws of the state that mining operations are being seriously hindered throughout the district.

It is declared that Sunday has become to be generally recognized among the miners as "booze day" and that a majority of the men get on such big drunks that they are unable to report for work Monday morning. Resulting from the importation of several cases of whiskey Sunday morning to a mining plant just west of the city, it is stated, all the miners are out and the plant was forced to suspend Monday. At another smaller plant east of the city nineteen men were said to be too drunk to go to work. All the plants in the district were similarly affected Monday.

Operators say it is as easy for a miner to buy whiskey at the mining camps in the county as it is to buy a loaf of bread or a piece of meat. It is believed that most of the whiskey sold at the mining towns is taken in automobiles by professional bootleggers. Ten automobiles in one string are said to have come into the county a few nights ago with big cargoes of whiskey.

Albert Greisblik, of St. Louis, Mo., are in the city to attend the Hart-Davis wedding.
